LIVE FROM THE SHELDON CONTINUES WITH JOEY DEFRANCESCO TRIO, NOVEMBER 14

ST. LOUIS, MO - The Sheldon and HEC Media are pleased to announce the second episode of “Live From The Sheldon,” featuring the Joey DeFrancesco Trio on November 14 at 8 p.m. A free monthly, virtual concert series spotlighting some of today’s top musicians, “Live From The Sheldon” is produced by HEC Media and will stream on both The Sheldon’s and HEC’s Facebook and YouTube pages, and HEC’s website at <https://hecmedia.org>.

Making this “Live From The Sheldon” installment even more dynamic, a limited-capacity live audience will be in attendance during the performance.

Master Hammond B-3 organist Joey DeFrancesco performs with an intensity and skill that solidifies his place as the rightful heir to greats such as Jimmy Smith and Jack McDuff. With a foundation rooted in jazz, blues and funk, the four-time Grammy® Award-nominee, with more than 30 recordings as a leader under his belt, has received countless Jazz Journalist Association awards and other accolades worldwide, including being inducted into the inaugural Hammond Organ Hall of Fame in 2014 and the Philadelphia Music Walk of Fame in 2016, and topping the Critics Polls in DownBeat magazine eleven times over the past fifteen years and the Readers Polls every year since 2005. DeFrancesco also hosts a weekly program on SiriusXM Radio’s Real Jazz channel titled “Organized.”

To watch “Live From The Sheldon,” follow The Sheldon and HEC Facebook pages, and subscribe to The Sheldon’s and HEC’s YouTube channels.
