Buses and Parking Book your bus to arrive at The Sheldon 20 minutes before showtime, and to leave The Sheldon 1 hour after showtime. We recommend your bus approaches from Spring Avenue. Staff and volunteers will be waiting to help your bus park in the appropriate place and give further instructions. Please stay on the bus until you have received those instructions. Buses park for free on the street in front of The Sheldon and in the lot. Cars park for free in the West Lot, on the right side of The Sheldon if you are facing the steps.

Tickets & Payment Physical tickets will not be sent, but the seats reflected on your invoice will be reserved together, and you will be seated by ushers in the concert hall when you arrive. Your payment is due 30 days before the show. Payment online with a credit card is the preferred method, but your school can also send a check. Please contact the Director of Education if you have unusual circumstances. A Ticketing and Payment Policies Document is included with your invoice.

Concert Manners Please coach your students in good concert manners before coming to The Sheldon Concert Hall. Good audiences love to listen to music and show their appreciation with applause, usually at the end of an entire piece and occasionally after a good solo by one of the musicians. Food and drink are prohibited in The Sheldon Concert Hall. Any device that makes noise is a distraction for both the performers on stage and your fellow audience members and should be put away. No photos or video are allowed during the performance. Restrooms are on the same level as the concert hall near the Art Galleries. Please encourage students to use restrooms at school or to use Sheldon restrooms before the concert begins. If a student does need to use the restroom during the performance, the best time to get up is between musical numbers.

Art Galleries The Sheldon features several art galleries in the Emerson building that adjoins the Concert Hall. Art galleries provide a place for contemplation, tranquility, and exposure to new ideas and means of expression. The Sheldon's art galleries are dedicated to showing local, national, emerging, and established artists in a full range of mediums from photography, painting, printmaking, sculpture, and video. You are invited to contact The Sheldon and add a 30-minute visit to the galleries when you attend a Sheldon Education Program. This season the fall exhibition is open September 27-January 18. The spring exhibition is open March 8-May 4. In between, the gallery is closed for installation and is not available for tours. Tours are available on a first-come, first-served basis, and we can accommodate 35 students at one time. Groups with 70 students can be divided into two consecutive tours, totaling 60 minutes.

Health + Safety Please visit our website for the most up-to-date information on health and safety measures. To communicate the need for accessible seating, please indicate so on your reservation form. The Sheldon staff can direct you toward elevators. We recommend students that might have sensory or stimulation issues bring their own noise-cancelling headphones, but if you are surprised by a need for them, we have some in the box office.

The Arts as Culture, History, and Connectors from National Core Arts Standards on Artistic Literacy

Philosophical Foundations

Throughout history the arts have provided essential means for individuals to express their ideas, experiences, feelings and deepest beliefs. Each discipline shares common goals, but approaches them through distinct media and techniques. Understanding artwork provides insights into individuals' own and others' cultures and societies, while also providing opportunities to access and express, and integrate meaning across a variety of content areas.

Lifelong Goals

Artistically literate citizens know and understand artwork from varied historical periods and cultures, and actively seek and appreciate diverse forms and genres of artwork of enduring quality and significance. They also seek to understand relationships between the arts and cultivate habits of searching for and identifying patterns, relationships between the arts, and other knowledge.

The Sheldon's Goal

We provide access to age-appropriate concert experiences that engage and inspire the student audience to pursue artistic literacy and all the benefits it offers.

Featured Composer

Pyotr Ilych Tchaikovsky

Romantic composer Pyotr Ilych Tchaikovsky (1840-1893) was born in Kamsko-Votkinsk, Vyatka, Russia and is recognized among the greatest composers in history, his music having international impact to this day. Because of his success, the second half of the 19th century is regarded the “golden age of Russian music.” Although Tchaikovsky showed impressive musical talent from a young age, his parents urged him to follow in his father’s footsteps working in civil service. Tchaikovsky attended law school and worked at the Ministry of Justice for four years. However, his passion remained in music and theatre, and he enrolled in the St. Petersburg Conservatory at 21 years of age as a composition student. In 1863, at age 23, Tchaikovsky moved to Moscow to teach at the Moscow Conservatory. During these years he composed many of his early works, some of which gained him great popularity including his Piano Concerto No. 1 in B-flat Minor, his Symphony No. 3 in D Major, and his ballet Swan Lake. In 1878, Tchaikovsky resigned from his teaching position to devote himself fully to composing.

Tchaikovsky’s body of work consists of 169 pieces, including symphonies, operas, ballets, concertos, cantatas, and songs. Of all his music he is most celebrated for his ballets The Sleeping Beauty (1890) and The Nutcracker (1892). Having attended St. Petersburg Conservatory, his composition style uniquely blends traditional Russian sounds with his Western classical training.

Tchaikovsky gained inspiration from Mozart, Richard Wagner, and Italian opera. In a journal, Tchaikovsky wrote, speaking of Mozart, “thanks to him, I learned what music was.”

How the choreography (ballet) and music work together to tell the story

MEET THE CHARACTERS

There are many characters in the ballet Sleeping Beauty, and in this version students will meet: Lilac Fairy, Carabosse, a Prince, the Wolf, Little Red Riding Hood, and Princess Aurora.

TELL THE STORY

Prologue: The beginning, or exposition of the story. The characters and setting are introduced, and the plot begins.

Act 1: The Spell: We are now at the rising action of the story, soon there will be a pivotal moment in the story.

Act 2: The Vision: We are given an update to the setting, and reach the climax of the story. There is a problem to solve.

Act 3: The Wedding: We are now in the falling action of the story. The problem has been solved and we get to find out if the characters get their “happily ever after.”

Conclusion: The finale of the ballet brings all of the characters and instruments together in a celebration. We need your help for the big finale!

Classroom Activity: Pantomime Your Own Story

Students will work together to create and tell a unique story as a class inspired by instrumental music. Students will practice using vocabulary terms characters, setting, and plot and pantomime their story as a performance.

LANGUAGE ARTS

1. As a class, identify building blocks of a story (characters, setting, plot) and define each component.
2. Select three instrumental music selections to serve as the soundtrack for the beginning (exposition), middle (rising action), and end (conclusion) of the story.
3. Listen as a class. Discuss the emotion of each piece, asking students how it makes them feel or what action they imagine if it were the soundtrack to a movie.
4. Use the Story Maker worksheet to build the story. As a class, decide the setting, characters, and plot of each part of the story, using the music as a guide. Use the WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, HOW questions to prompt discussion. Keep adding details until the story is complete. Remind students that you are building ONE story, so each added detail should support the current story.
5. Assign students to characters to dance or act out the story using only pantomime (body gestures and facial expressions). Perform as a class with the music.

About the Sheldon

The Sheldon Concert Hall is a historical building that was constructed in 1912 by the famous architect, Louis Spiering. It was originally home to the Ethical Society of St. Louis and is named after Walter Sheldon, founding member of the Ethical Society. It was purchased in 1991, becoming the Sheldon Art Foundation, with the first season presented in 1994. The education programs began in 1999 and continue to inspire young audiences today.

In 1998 The Sheldon Art Galleries were opened in the building next door to the concert hall, joined by a glass bridge. Interestingly, the building used to be a parking garage before it was renovated for the Sheldon galleries and event spaces.

Concert Hall Eye-Spy

Acoustic Materials

The Sheldon is known for having perfect acoustics, which means that sound travels really well – even without amplification! The architect of The Sheldon carefully considered shape, size, and materials used in order to make the perfect concert hall. Hard and smooth surfaces reflect sound back to the listener and soft surfaces absorb sound.

The wood floor beneath your feet acts like the belly of a REALLY large guitar, vibrating with the sounds from stage. What you cannot see is that under the floor is open space and a dirt floor. The open space allows the floor to freely vibrate and the dirt floor absorbs the extra vibrations that pass through.

Reappearing patterns

Louis Spiering, architect of The Sheldon, gave the room his own personal touch through this geometric pattern found on the concert hall doors. This pattern is also found elsewhere in the concert hall. See if you can find the pattern when you visit!

Stage extension

If you look closely you will notice a seam where an extension to the original stage was added. The first row of original seats was removed to make room for this stage.

Stained glass windows

When you walk in the concert hall you won't be able to miss the beautiful stain glass windows creating a kaleidoscope of colors! Do you notice the contrasting designs? The windows on opposite sides of the stage were created by different artists at different times.
