ST. LOUIS — Armed with an acoustic guitar, banjo and the occasional mouth harp, Willie Watson takes center stage, breathing new life into traditional folk, blues and Appalachian inspired-music. A former member of Old Crow Medicine Show, Watson's debut solo album, Folk Singer Vol.1, produced by David Rawlings, features everything from American folk standards such as "Midnight Special" and "Mexican Cowboy," to more obscure selections by Memphis Slim and St. Louis bluesman Charley Jordan.
