MUNY KIDS BRING MUSICAL JOURNEY TO THE SHELDON FOR SATURDAY MATINEE

ST. LOUIS, MO - The Sheldon presents The Muny Kids: “Broadway Here I Come,” Saturday, January 31, 2015 at 11 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. The talented Muny kids and teens take you on a musical journey to the “Great White Way” with favorite Broadway songs, old and new. The Muny is a St. Louis institution, bringing Broadway music to life every summer for over 90 years. The Muny Kids and Muny Teens performing troupes serve as good will ambassadors to the people of St. Louis and the surrounding region. A performance and training ground for talented youngsters, the program spotlights children, age 7 to 13, and teenagers, age 14 to 18, with exceptional voice and dance talent, stage presence and a discipline that make them standouts among their peers.

The rigorous audition process begins in early spring, when The Muny auditions and casts its children and teen choruses for its summer season in Forest Park. Those performers cast in a summer production are then invited to further audition for The Muny Kids and Muny Teens. As an added bonus, many of the professionals employed by The Muny during the summer eagerly lend their talents, expertise and knowledge to assist in the training of the ensembles.

Making about 75 appearances yearly, they have performed for a broad spectrum of events and attractions, including the Variety Club telethon, First Night, Fair St. Louis, Raging Rivers Water Park, as well as numerous children’s charitable events.
