ST. LOUIS — Hailing from Texas, The Quebe Sisters are triple-threat fiddle champions, known for their multi-part close harmony. The sisters started playing fiddle at a young age, winning state and national championships in their respective age groups in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002. Now in their mid-20s, the group's following is continuing to grow, with performances with music legends Willie Nelson, George Strait, Merle Haggard, Ricky Skaggs & Kentucky Thunder, Marty Stuart, Asleep at the Wheel and many others.

Today, after more than a decade of travelling the U.S. and the world, and recording three acclaimed albums, Grace, Sophia and Hulda Quebe are continuing the tradition of old-time fiddle and country music while bringing a fresh perspective to the genre.
