THE WEE HEAVIES FEATURED ON SHELDON MATINEE SERIES IN MARCH

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents The Wee Heavies, Saturday, March 4, 2017 at 11 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Dedicated to music from and influenced by the Celtic tradition, a cappella quartet The Wee Heavies (Jay Harkey, Peter Merideth, Steve Neale and Aaron Schiltz) present an eclectic mix of songs from the traditional to the modern.

The Wee Heavies, named after a Scottish beer that they “unanimously don’t recommend trying,” began singing together in 2013. The all-male, mostly-a cappella quartet specializes in, but are not limited to, folk music from Scotland, Ireland and England.

Revered for their close harmonies, they are also quickly becoming well-known for their hilarious unscripted banter between songs. Audiences erupt with laughter one minute and are then moved to tears by the Heavies’ original arrangements and moving interpretations, forging memorable connections with their fans.

Tickets are $12 adult/$5 child, and are on sale now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111, through The Sheldon’s website at TheSheldon.org, or in person at The Fox Theatre Box Office, 534 N. Grand Blvd. For more information, call The Sheldon at 314-533-9900 or visit TheSheldon.org.
