ST. LOUIS — The Sheldon presents Grammy Award winning producer and vocalist Steve Tyrell. In his nearly five decades in the music business, he has achieved success as a singer, songwriter, producer, music supervisor, and most recently, radio host. His breakthrough performances in Father of the Bride and Father of the Bride II helped Tyrell reinvent and re-popularize classic pop standards for a modern-day audience. As an artist, all nine of his American standards albums have achieved top five status on Billboard's jazz charts, including his first album, A New Standard, which was among the best-selling jazz albums for more than five years. Tyrell's latest album, That Lovin' Feeling, celebrates what he calls the "Great American Songbook 2," featuring seminal rock-era classics penned by legendary songwriters, including Carole King, Burt Bacharach, Neil Sedaka, Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil, and Mike Stoller and Jerry Leiber, among others.

Tyrell's work in the studio as a record producer has included collaborations with such diverse and legendary artists as Rod Stewart, Diana Ross, Ray Charles, Linda Ronstadt, Aaron Neville, Bonnie Raitt, Blood Sweat and Tears, Mary J. Blige, Chris Botti, Dave Koz, Dolly Parton, Smokey Robinson, Burt Bacharach, Bette Midler and Stevie Wonder, among many others. He produced Woody Allen's classic comedy album, Woody Allen – Stand Up Comic, as well as an album with the late Andy Griffith, which won the Grammy in 1995 for Gospel Album of the Year.
