ARTIST CALL FOR MINI GOLF DESIGNS DEADLINE EXTENDED TO DECEMBER 1

ST. LOUIS, MO – The Sheldon Art Galleries’ has extended the deadline for submissions to its mini-golf design competition to December 1, 2017 at midnight. As previously announced, the Sheldon Art Galleries will present “Golf in the Galleries” from June 1 through August 28, 2018, and have put out a call to artists to help design a playable, indoor, nine-hole mini golf installation. The course will be situated in the Sheldon Art Galleries, and is designed to be inclusive and family-friendly. The call is open to artists, architects, architectural and design firms, collaborative art teams, schools, landscape architects and other creatives who would like to be a part of this unique project.

Winning artists will be chosen by a committee of Sheldon staff, and a representative of the presenting sponsor, U.S. Bank. Winners will be asked to design and fabricate their hole designs to specifications outlined in the Request for Proposal. Each winning proposal, artist or team will receive a $500 honorarium and $1,000 towards materials and expenses. In addition, a $1,000 prize will be awarded for “Best Hole.” More information can be found at TheSheldon.org.

Individual golf hole sponsorships are available. Call The Sheldon’s Development Department at 314-533-9900 for more information.
