SARAH JANE AND THE BLUE NOTES TO OPEN SHELDON MATINEE SERIES IN FEBRUARY

ST. LOUIS – The Sheldon presents Sarah Jane and the Blue Notes, Saturday, February 3, 2018 at 11 a.m. in the perfect acoustics of the Sheldon Concert Hall. Sarah Jane brings her lush, sultry voice, in the tradition of a “red hot mama,” to The Sheldon stage along with the Blue Notes’ horn infused swingin’ jazz and St. Louis blues from the 1920s to the ‘40s.

The band specializes in forgotten songs from the era along with a dash of some of everyone’s classic standards. As one of the most festive dance bands in St. Louis, their sound seamlessly blends speakeasy, New Orleans Dixieland, Harlem night club, juke joint and big band swing with a touch of old time blues.

Sarah Jane has been featured locally on Billie Holiday revues, torch song revues and The Great Ladies of Jazz Revue at The Sheldon. The Blue Notes are a favorite among local festivals, including the Old Webster Jazz and Blues Festival, the Whitaker Music Festival, St. Louis Art Fair, The Carondelet Concert Series in Fanetti Park and The Maplewood Concert Series.
