SUBMISSION DEADLINE EXTENDED FOR “ST. LOUIS SOUND” MUSIC COMPETITION

ST. LOUIS –The submission deadline for the ST. LOUIS SOUND music competition has been extended to this Friday, May 25 at 4 p.m. Visit TheSheldon.org/STLSound for full details, eligibility, official rules and instructions on how to enter.

Musicians and bands of up to six members are invited to enter the ST. LOUIS SOUND competition, a contest in the style of “America’s Got Talent” or “The Voice,” open to amateur and professional musicians alike. Judged by a panel of music industry professionals, the winner will receive a trip to Nashville to meet with music executives and record a demo in a professional recording studio, plus a chance to perform on the Sheldon Concert Hall stage.

Proceeds from the first ever ST. LOUIS SOUND music competition to benefit MusiCares.

Finalists will be announced on or around May 31, and will then be invited to perform at the Sheldon Concert Hall on Thursday, June 7 at 7:30 p.m. in front of a live audience and panel of judges. The winner, judged on the quality of the composition and performance, will be announced that night.

Tickets for the live finals event on June 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Sheldon Concert Hall are $20 general admission and are available now through MetroTix at 314-534-1111 or at TheSheldon.org.
