ST. LOUIS — The Friends of The Sheldon present Aaron Neville in a concert benefitting Sheldon Educational Programs, which serve over 30,000 St. Louis area students each year.

Aaron Neville is one of the most distinctive and influential vocalists in music today. The New Orleans native has become synonymous with the spirit and sound of the Crescent City, first as a member of the legendary Neville Brothers, then through an impressive solo career showcasing his unique vocal style. From number one R&B hit “Tell It Like It Is,” to his Grammy Award-winning duets, “Don’t Know Much” and “All My Life” with Linda Ronstadt, Neville has earned fans across the music spectrum, from R&B and gospel to country and pop. This duo performance will include Neville’s hits, favorite songs and influences in a very special, personal night of music.
