ST. LOUIS, MO — One of St. Louis' favorite live bands, The Groovelineer defies labels, bringing a funk energy to Latin, rock and soul music. Comprised of six seasoned St. Louis musicians from a wide range of backgrounds, their goal is to be as musically diverse as the people that make up the great city of St. Louis. The Groovelineer was the winner of the first ever St. Louis Sound competition in June 2018 at The Sheldon.

Hailing from St. Louis, Brother Francis and the Soutones fuse rock, funk, soul and groove for a set full of originals and covers that are sure to get audiences moving.
